

San Francisco Water Taxi Co.

San Francisco Water Taxi's Mission

- Mission - Provide iconic Hop on hop off water taxis as an alternative form of transportation along the water Front for the public.

THE PORT OF
SAN FRANCISCO

WATER TAXI

LANDING

SFPORT.COM/WATERTAXI

The Wave Organ

Pier 43 Ferry Arch

PIER 39

Ghirardelli Square

NORTH BEACH

Palace of Fine Arts Theatre

Lombard Street

Coit Tower

PRESIDIO

COW HOLLOW

Columbus Ave

EMBARCADERO

San Francisco - Oakland Bay Bridge

Lyon Street Steps

Cable Car Museum

FINANCIAL DISTRICT

PRESIDIO HEIGHTS

Alta Plaza Park

101

Union Square

Rincon Park

California St

The Fillmore

O'Farrell St

San Francisco Museum of Modern Art

RICHMOND DISTRICT

INNER RICHMOND

The Warfield

SOUTH OF MARKET

AT&T Park

Balboa St

San Francisco City Hall

Painted Ladies

Turk St

Fall St

8th St
9th St

The Fleet

CF 9844 LD

LIL' TAXI
III

SAN FRANCISCO, CA.

251113311

Building for the future

San Francisco Water Taxi is currently operationally breaking even.

The San Francisco Water Taxi since conception has been debt free

For expansion $500,000 to $1,000,000 has been ear marked for the company in the coming year.

Launching soon – the express fleet

- San Francisco water taxi providing entry level positions for female captains.

Fun facts about San Francisco Water Taxi

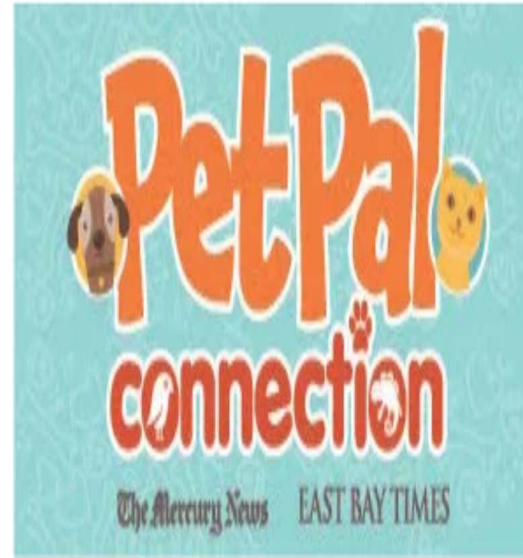

- Awarded a Coast Guard medal for a life saving rescue.
- 2 marriage proposals.
- 4 surprise spontaneous ash scatterings of a loved one.
- 6 whale sightings
- 15000 little captains stickers handed out.

5 fun SF Bay Area things to do with your dog, from water taxis to tasty treats

Joan Morris

PUBLISHED: July 5, 2018 at 4:00 pm | UPDATED: July 6, 2018
Latest Headlines, Lifestyle, Pet Pal Connection, Travel & P

1 San Francisco Water Taxi Company

Not only is this the most scenic, fun and easy way to traverse San Francisco's waterfront, this adorable yellow boat also lets your dog ride for free. The water taxi service runs 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Sunday, and the ticket ($10 per person) lets you hop on and off all day. Stops include Hyde Street, Pier 39, the Exploratorium, Pier 1.5 neat the Ferry Building and Pier 40 (AT&T Park), with more stops promised in the future. 415-926-1114; sanfranciscowatertaxi.org

10 cheap (but fun!) Bay Area date ideas for summer

Angela Hill

PUBLISHED: July 8, 2018 at 8:00 am | UPDATED: July 9, 2018
Entertainment, Lifestyle, Travel & Play

Hop aboard the adorable San Francisco Water Taxi which runs between Pier 1.5, near the Ferry Building, and Hyde Street Pier. (Jackie Burrell/Bay Area News Group)

CLICK HERE if you are having a problem viewing these photos on a mobile device

7 Hail a floating cab

Hop aboard the adorable San Francisco Water Taxi. (Jackie Burrell/Bay Area News Group)

Getting around San Francisco has become a huge pain. So maybe it's better to "get around" the city by boarding the San Francisco Water Taxi. For $10, you can get an all-day hop-on/hop-off pass and float around the fray. Take this adorable ride from Pier 1.5 at the Ferry Building all the way to the Hyde Street stop, then walk up to Ghirardelli Square's historic soda fountain to share a butterscotch hot fudge sundae.

